

John Axler, MD, CCFP

Dr. John Axler graduated from U of T in 1968, Interned at the Toronto Western Hospital and has been in full-time active clinical family practice since 1969. He obtained his certification from The College of Family Practice in 1999 and his fellowship in 2009.

Currently he is an Assistant Professor, in the U of T, Faculty of Medicine, Department of Community and Family Medicine and is currently the Director of Continuing Education for that department. He has been actively involved in CME for over 25 years and was the Course Director for Primary Care Today and Saturday at the University as well as many other CME projects.

He is the 2009-2010 co-winner of the U of T Faculty of Medicine Colin Woolf award for Long-Term Commitment to Continuing Education. He has helped develop over 100 accredited CME programs and is the co-author of the mdPassport Nutrition e-newsletter.

PLANNING COMMITTEE

Humanitarian Healthcare Provider Program

